

NEW GETAWAY PACKAGE PROMISES LUXURY TREATMENT FOR ALL COUPLES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Niagara-on-the-Lake, ON December 4, 2006 – The charm of Niagara-on-the-Lake. The lure of luxury. A choice of accommodations and culinary experiences at three luxury hotels. It's all in Vintage Hotels' new couples getaway package, which consists of an overnight stay with breakfast and dinner for two for CAD$266. The package is being promoted with an extensive ad campaign that extends the company's Purple Feet campaign, which celebrates the many attractions of Ontario's Wine Country.

While staying at a Vintage property, couples have access to Vintage's two lavish spas—100 Fountain and the Secret Garden. There, couples can indulge in couples massage side-by-side in the comfort of a private couples' suite. In addition to "his 'n' her" massages," and men will particularly enjoy the Vintage spas' enhanced menu of rejuvenating treatments and grooming services. Lifestyle treatments include a Sport Hydrotherapy Bath at Secret Garden Spa. Grooming treatments include pampering hand and foot treatments, as well as facials, from the 25-minute Express Facial to the 55-minute Men's Classic Facial and the 85-minute Deluxe Facial, with intensive anti-aging treatments. The spas also offer a full range of body and facial treatments, as well as a manicure and pedicure salon.

Vintage Hotels is a collection of three CAA/AAA four-diamond hotels offering a total of 374 guest rooms, over 30,000 square feet of meeting space, three four-diamond restaurants and two spas in Niagara-on-the-Lake. Offering classic style with a modern sensibility, the hotel properties are the jewels in the crown of the Niagara region. The Prince of Wales captures the elegance and refinement of the Victorian Age; The Pillar and Post is a classic country inn that offers all of the luxuries of a modern property while appealing to the entire family; and Queen's Landing sets the stage for everything from family vacations to high-level corporate gatherings in a spectacular Georgian-style mansion. The recently renovated 13,000-square-foot 100 Fountain Spa offers a wide selection of services to soothe both body and soul.
