Premium Imports from...

Belgium

Chimay Red – Belgian Dubbel 7% ABV | 750ml $28

An authentic Trappist beer, Chimay red is a copper-tinted brown ale that combines generous fruit flavours with toast and sweet caramel. Chimay Red is the oldest of Chimay's beers (brewed since 1862), hence it's title of Premiere and the prominent 750ml bottle.

Chimay Blue – Belgian Strong Ale 9% ABV | 330ml $12

An authentic Trappist beer, a strong dark brown beer with fruity, chocolate and spicy aromas culminating in a delicious candied fruit finish. Originally brewed in 1954 as a Christmas beer, it quickly became a reference in the Chimay range.

Chimay Gold – Belgian Enkel / Patersbier 4.5% ABV | 330ml $12

An authentic Trappist beer, brewed from very similar ingredients as the Premiere but paler and spiced with coriander. Originally intended to be only consumed by the abbey monks or at the nearby inn associated with the abbey.

Delirium Tremens - Belgian Tripel 8.5% ABV | 330ml $12

A strong pale golden ale with a sweet and spicy nose. A bold body of candy liqueur sweetness is expertly balanced by a soft mouthfeel and warming alcohol. Finishing with a rounded, sustained and dry bitterness.

Duchesse de Bourgogne – Flemish Red Ale 6.2% ABV | 330ml $12

Traditional Flemish red ale. This refreshing mixed fermentation ale is matured in oak casks; smooth with a rich texture, an interplay of sweet and tart notes, with a long dry, acidic finish.

Mongozo Organic Pilsner - Pilsner 5 % ABV | 330ml $9.5

This Organic and Fair-Trade Pilsner is a clear pale gold with fruity notes and honey sweetness. A crisp, dry and refreshing finish.

What is a Trappist Beer?

Trappist beer is brewed by monks, or under the supervision of monks, within the grounds of a Trappist monastery. The money raised from selling the beer goes to maintaining the monastery with all other profits being donated to charities and projects within the local community where the monastery resides.

There are currently only 13 trappiest breweries, six of which are located in Belgium. Other Trappist breweries are located in Austria, the Netherlands, Italy, France, the United Kingdom and the USA.

Germany

Erdinger Weissbier – Hefe-Weizen 5.3%ABV | 500ml $13

The world's most popular Weissbier. Erdinger's flagship beer, a fine champagne-like mouthfeel, cloudy golden straw colour. Medium malt character up front plays into a zesty carbonation; with flavours of clove, banana; and wheat with a mellow fruitiness

Erdinger Alkoholfrei - Non-Alcoholic = 0.4% ABV | 341ml $8

Light chestnut in colour with lively effervescence, almonds and coffee on the nose. Flavours of caramel combined with a touch of roasted spice and mild chocolate notes lead to a dry and thirst-quenching finish.

Bavarian Purity Law of 1516

The Reinheitsgebot, or the Bavarian Purity Law, dates back to 1516 and governs the production of all beer brewed within Germany. The law states that any beer produced within Germany cannot contain ingredients other than water, malt, hops, and yeast. The Erdinger Brewery personifies this purity, using the utmost in advanced technology to perfectly replicate traditional methods.
